

JUNE BISANTZ

Award-winning vocalist and visual artist JUNE BISANTZ has co-written and produced several collections of original vocal jazz, all of which have received national recognition.

She has toured internationally, and performed and recorded with distinguished jazz musicians including Steve Swallow, Bob Moses, Paul Brown, Lew Soloff, Jerry Neiwood, Mike Stern, Steve Davis & Will Lee. Reviews and articles about her work have appeared in publications including People Magazine, USA Today, Downbeat, JazzQuad.Ru, Jazziz Magazine, Jazz Podium Magazine, Jazz USA, the New York Times, New York Newsday & the Boston Globe. Her work has been released on the Pausa and Nova labels, Los Angeles, Alpha Records, Japan and Track Records, NYC. She has also self-produced and released several collections of vocal jazz.

Following her two-volume tribute to the vocal work of the legendary Chet Baker (Let's Fall in Love & It's Always You), Bisantz recently released Love's Tango, co-written with pianist & composer Alex Nakhimovsky. This project signaled her return to original music with a collection of Latin inspired songs about love in its many forms. Love's Tango won a Global Music Award for lyrics and songwriting in 2019, and a World Songwriting Award for Best Jazz Song in 2024. Her next two recordings "7 Shades of Snow" and "It's Been A Long, Long Time" both won Global Music Awards in 2021 and 2023 respectively.

Ms. Bisantz is Professor Emeritus of Art & Design at Eastern Connecticut State University and has exhibited her visual art work in galleries, museums and public spaces throughout the United States. She designs and produces publicity and album artwork for her own projects and those of many other musicians.
